BIOGRAPHY

Gregory W. Ferris focuses his practice on estate planning, trust and estate administration and tax planning.

Greg graduated magna cum laude from Temple University in 2014, where he majored in Political Science with a minor in Economics and a Certificate of Specialization in Arabic. After graduating from college, Greg served as a police officer in Wilmington, Delaware before attending law school. He then graduated from Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law in 2021 with a Certificate in Business Law.

During law school, Greg served as a Research Editor on the Temple International and Comparative Law Journal, a summer judicial intern for the Honorable Eric D. Davis and the Honorable Paul R. Wallace of the Delaware Superior Court and a teaching assistant for the Integrated Transactional Program course at Temple Law. Upon graduating, Greg received the Nancy J. Knauer & Eleanor W. Myers Integrated Transactional Program Award for outstanding achievement in the program.

Greg is currently pursuing a LL.M. in Taxation with a Certificate in Estate Planning from Temple Law.
