BIOGRAPHY

Lance S. Lacheen focuses his practice on estate planning, trust and estate administration and estate and gift taxation.

Lance earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the George Washington University in 2012. He graduated from the University of Miami School of Law where he was an Editor for the Race and Social Justice Law Review. Lance went on to earn his Masters of Law in Taxation from Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law in 2019.

Lance was nominated for and graduated from the second session of the Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute ("MAFI") sponsored by the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel in 2022. MAFI is a six session education program designed to develop future leaders of trust and estate practice.

Prior to joining Heckscher, Teillon, Terrill & Sager, Lance clerked for the Honorable Robert P. Coleman in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, and was as an associate at an estate planning firm in Berwyn, Pennsylvania.
