BIOGRAPHY

Merideth E. Ketterer focuses her practice on estate planning, trust and estate administration, and estate and gift taxation.

Merideth grew up in Hanover, Pennsylvania and graduated cum laude from Temple University with a bachelor's degree in strategic communication and a minor in business studies. Merideth received her J.D. from Temple University Beasley School of Law and was the recipient of the Nancy J. Knauer & Eleanor W. Myers Integrated Transactional Program Award. After law school, she completed a judicial clerkship with the Honorable John J. Matheussen, Superior Court of New Jersey, Gloucester County.

Merideth is an Adjunct Professor at Temple University Beasley School of Law where she teaches "Transactional Practice I" to J.D. students as part of the Integrated Transactional Program. She is currently serving as a Director-at-Large of the Temple University Alumni Association and is a Past President of the Temple University Young Alumni Association.

Merideth was nominated for and graduated from Class IV of the Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute ("MAFI"), sponsored by the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel. She was also a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Bar Leadership Institute, Class of 2024-2025.

Prior to joining Heckscher, Teillon, Terrill & Sager, Merideth was an associate at a boutique trusts and estates law firm in Princeton, New Jersey.
